

1. As a group, discuss briefly what the message/passage of scripture from this weeks message, so that you all have a memory of the subject. (Daniel 3; Revelation 13:11-18)
2. Looking at your own history, can you think of a time where you were required to compromise on your personal convictions? Describe the situation. Who was involved? What were the potential consequences? How did it end?
3. How do you determine right and wrong in your life? Are most things black and white, or are most things gray? How do you determine their weight in how much consequence you would be willing to face for them?
4. What areas of persecution do you personally see coming to you in the near future?
